

Preliminary 2024 League File Posted

MarkB, Saturday 20 April 2024 - 13:05:35

I have posted a PRELIMINARY 2024 league file in the League Files section of the website.

Instructions:

In the game go to Utilities>New Draft League. Title it whatever you want. Could be 2024 KRFL or 2024 KRFL Prelim Ratings, or whatever.

Close the game.

Down load the league file.

Extract it into the folder you created above just as you would any weekly file during the season.

Reopen the game and set that folder you created as the active folder.

PLEASE NOTE

+This file was produced from the beta test version of the 2024 game to be released in a few weeks. However, it should work in the 2023 version of the game, but I cannot guarantee that.

+This are the preliminary ratings, but they are not likely to change.

+Please look at your roster and inform me of any missing players. Please note there will be a file titled "Model-Players-Not-Found.txt" in the folder you created above. These are the players on your team who were not found in the 2023 NFL league file, most likely because they were injured the entire season or retired. In some cases it is because the player changed his name from the 2022 to the 2023 NFL season. Again, if you think your roster is missing someone, please message me.

+Trading is still CLOSED, but trade discussion is obviously okay.

Upcoming League Schedule (subject to change)
