

KRFL Update

MarkB, Tuesday 08 May 2018 - 23:05:42

Thank you to Steve Ward for making the roster cuts to the vacant Pittsburgh/Brick team. I looking for a new owner for the team. If you know anyone who would be interest in joining the league, please provide me with the name, email address, and how you know them.

A league file and salary worksheet after all the roster cuts has been posted in the League Files section of the website. Please download this and review it and notify me IMMEDIATELY if you find any errors on your roster or player contracts.

The league calendar can be found on the league website. Please look it over. I am hoping top have a new owner in place by May 22 so as not to delay the Rookie Draft. However a delay is possible. I'll make a decision on that soon.

Please note I am on vacation May 10-20, in a time zone six hours behind Eastern time (you can figure out where that might be) with limited email access, so my responses to emails may be delayed.
